

February 2, 2017 – For Immediate Release

Contacts:

Derek Schroeder
Director of Parks & Recreation 330.963.8722
dschroeder@twinsburg.oh.us

Ryan Kennedy
Marketing Coordinator
330.963.8723
rkennedy@twinsburg.oh.us

Bicentennial book vouchers arriving soon

*All households will be receiving a voucher by mail for publication titled Three Communities, One Heritage

TWINSBURG (February 2, 2017) – Pick up your piece of Bicentennial history this March! Book vouchers are currently being produced and mailed to all households in Twinsburg Township, the City of Twinsburg, and Village of Reminderville for the week of February 13th. The Bicentennial was made possible by generous sponsors including Founding sponsor, Forest City Erectors Inc.

The vibrant red, white, and blue voucher can be redeemed for a copy of the Bicentennial book titled Three Communities, One Heritage beginning March 1st. Each household is limited to one copy and the offer expires July 31, 2017. By picking up your book, you'll also be entered into a grand prize drawing at the Founders' Day event this July. Books are limited and the voucher only applies while supplies last.

Vouchers can be redeemed beginning March 1st at:

- Twinsburg Township Hall – 1790 Enterprise Parkway
- Twinsburg City Hall – 10075 Ravenna Road
- Reminderville Village Hall – 3382 Glenwood Boulevard
- Twinsburg City School District Board of Education – 11136 Ravenna Road
- Twinsburg Chamber of Commerce – 9044 Church Street
- Twinsburg Public Library – 10050 Ravenna Road

Three Communities, One Heritage will be published by Gray & Company, a well-known and respected publisher in Northeast Ohio. The book will highlight the area's history in a fun, easy to read format for any age. Historical information has been compiled by Pursue Posterity and the Bicentennial Commission since September 2015. To learn more about the Bicentennial, visit Twinsburg200.com or like their Facebook page at Facebook.com/Twinsburg200.